Young actress and Curro Krugersdorp's Danae Conradie has been selected for the World Monologue Games' Tigers (under 12 years) regional finals – one of 27 events featuring the best international competitors.

It's been a challenging 18 months for the arts but the global pandemic hasn't affected Danae's love of performing. This young actress from Krugersdorp achieved fourth place in the World Monologue Games – Tigers category – in 2020 and has entered again this year, hoping to do even better.

Danae recently received the happy news that she had again made the event's regional finals among the best of the best from around Africa.

"I'm so excited that I get to compete for my country and representing my school, Curro Krugersdorp, doing what I love. It's really fantastic to be part of this amazing event."

World Monologue Games was set up last year by Aussie Pete Malicki, who wanted a lockdown-friendly platform for performers. Malicki said, "It's definitely special to have our second season take place in an Olympics year. We have the best performers from 51 countries all getting together to show the world what they're made of. I'm not sure where else you can see such a diverse range of actors all in the same place."

Danae has been selected with a monologue out of "A Little Princess" by Frances Burnett. It is about a poor orphan finding money in the street to buy some bread. "This is such a great piece. It portrays a number of emotions, which makes it more challenging to perform, but also more rewarding."

The Africa Regional Finals – Tigers category – will be livestreamed on YouTube on Friday September 17, 2021 with 12 little ones competing for a place in the global finals where they stand a chance to win their share of $5 000 cash.
