

Chimwemwe Chipidza Headed To The World Monologue Games Global Finals

TAFADZWA MADZIKA

A few months ago Chimwemwe Chipidza entered the World Monologue Games as an amateur and now 2 rounds of the competition later she's set to be among the few names competing in the global finals. In the first round she made it as 1 of 9 from 650 who had entered the competition and she jokingly pointed out she was finally part of the 1%. She's competing in the amateur category which is 1 of 6 categories featured in the competition this year. The young creative is also set to be part of MultiChoice Talent Factory's 2022 Academy Class.

In the regional finals Chimwemwe was competing in the Africa/Europe region of the amateur competition against several others. Zimbabwe, South Africa and Kenya were the only African countries to have representatives in the amateur regional finals this year.

The World Monologue Games (WMG) sees thousands of performers from scores of countries participate in an epic acting competition and virtual showcase. The key aim is to provide entertainment and to pay as many performers as possible. There's going to be $5,000 awarded to winning actors as prizes this year.

WMG is a global acting competition and virtual showcase, allowing professional and budding actors from anywhere in the world to participate from their homes. WMG is split into three phases: Qualifiers, Regional Livestreams and the Global Finals. It works with experienced industry professionals from around the world: theatre and film experts, industry leaders, accomplished creatives etc.
