

Employment Candidate Agreement

I, the healthcare professional/independent contractor have chosen Creative Dental Connections LLC to introduce me to temporary and/or permanent employment opportunities. I acknowledge that you may receive requests from doctor's offices and/or healthcare facilities for information pertaining to my past employment in the form of a resume and/or CV along with a copy of my license. I authorize Creative Dental Connection LLC to release such information to any doctor's offices and/or healthcare facilities that may request such information.

I agree to conduct myself in a professional manner at all times. I also agree to report any direct solicitation from the employer or employees of the workplace in which I was introduced by Creative Dental Connections LLC for temporary or permanent employment. I promise to report on a daily or weekly basis all dates and times worked at any such dental facility in which Creative Dental Connections LLC has made the initial introduction for placement of employment.

I understand that if I choose not to report all dates and times worked at the facility, that I am liable to Creative Dental Connections LLC for the applicable temporary or permanent placement fees incurred.

Creative Dental Connections LLC is informing you that if taxes are not withheld from your earnings, while on a work assignment, from the doctor or healthcare facility with whom you have been employed by, that you are responsible for keeping accurate records, and reporting your wages for year end filing of income taxes. Creative Dental Connections LLC is not responsible for paying your wages.
